

Privacy Policy

Commitment

Daltech are committed to protecting the privacy of individuals and are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) ("Privacy Act"). There may be occasions when Daltech requires your personal information and this Privacy Policy ("the Policy") has been created to ensure that this information is protected and secure. Daltech values your privacy and believes you should know how we handle your information and how you may access it.

Scope

This policy applies to everyone working for, with or visiting a physical Daltech workplace as well as social media platforms owned or operated by Daltech.

The purpose of this the Privacy Policy is to outline Daltech's commitment to protecting the privacy of individuals and are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) ("Privacy Act").

Arrangements

Your Acceptance of This Policy

By providing your personal information to Daltech, using our website and the services available on our website, you consent to us collecting, using, storing, disclosing, and dealing with your personal information as set out in this Policy.

If you do not agree to the terms of this Policy, please contact us immediately by emailing privacy@daltechequipment.com.au and refrain from using our website and providing us with any personal information.

Types of Information Collected

You may provide Daltech with personal information while working with us, or you may ask us to provide you with information, goods, products, or services, and by doing so, supply personal information. The information we collect about you depends on the circumstances.

In general, we may collect the following types of information:

1. name and contact details (including your postal address, geographical address, email address, phone numbers),
2. date of birth, age, and other demographic information.
3. occupation.
4. Internet Protocol address.
5. customer history or preferences in relation to our products or services.

Wherever practicable, Daltech will allow you to provide personal information anonymously or with a pseudonym.

Collection Of Your Personal Information

Daltech collects personal information from you in several different ways, including:

1. Directly from you, for example when you provide personal information to us, our agents, or our contractors in person, by email, over the phone or through your use of our website,
2. By your use of our website
3. From publicly available sources of information; and

4. If you consent, from third parties (if appropriate), including from referees that you provide to us and other persons where we may be required to confirm information you have provided to us

The purposes for which Daltech collects your personal information will vary depending on your relationship with Daltech and may include:

1. Contacting you
2. Responding to your queries
3. Providing you with information in relation to our products and services
4. For prospective employees, assessing your application for employment with Daltech; and
5. Developing and improving our services and obtaining feedback

Passive Collection of Personal Information Through Our Website

If you are a user of Daltech's website, we may collect certain information from you passively, including your IP address, details of your computer system, browser details, details of the website from which you linked to our website, geographical location information, pages visited, duration of visit and website functionality accessed.

However, this information does not identify you as an individual and only identifies details about the computer that you are using to view the site and your approximate geographical location.

Daltech may use and combine such passively collected information to improve our website, customise it based on your preferences, compile and analyse statistics and trends and otherwise administer and improve our website. Daltech may also disclose this de-identified information to third parties.

Use of Your Personal Information

Daltech collects, holds, uses, and discloses personal information where necessary for our business activities, including facilitating sales, staffing at projects, dealing with customers and suppliers, handling enquiries and to provide and improve our services and products.

Daltech may hold, use, or disclose your personal information for the primary purpose for which it was collected. Daltech may also hold, use, or disclose your personal information for any secondary purpose that is related to a purpose for which we collected it, where an individual would reasonably expect it to be held, used or disclosed for that purpose, in accordance with the Privacy Act.

Daltech may also hold, use, or disclose your personal information where you have expressly or impliedly consented to the holding, use or disclosure or, where the holding, use or disclosure is authorised or required by law.

If Daltech wishes to hold, use, or disclose the personal information in other circumstances, we will obtain your prior consent to do so.

If you provide Daltech with sensitive information such as your race or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, professional or trade union membership, sexual preferences, criminal record, or your health for a purpose, including pre-employment checks, you consent to Daltech holding and using this information for the purpose for which it was provided. Daltech will only collect personal information if it is reasonably necessary for Daltech's business.

Use for employment applications and website feedback

Daltech collects, holds, uses, and discloses personal information for the following purposes:

1. To answer any of your queries or otherwise contact you regarding the information you have provided and your use of our website.
2. To send you information regarding employment opportunities including any updates.
3. To help us learn more about users of our website so that we can improve your experience and our business.
4. To address any issues or problems with your use of our website or our business, products, or services; and
5. Any other purpose disclosed to you at the time your personal information is collected.

Daltech will not use any employment application information for any purpose other than to facilitate the recruitment process and will not use any employment application information for any marketing or other promotional or information gathering functions not directly related to the recruitment process.

Daltech will also not provide any employment application information to any other individual, company or government body or organisation except as required by law.

Optional uses you have consented to

At the time, you provided your personal information or applied for a particular job vacancy, you may have been provided with a number of additional options regarding the use of your personal information. Daltech will only use your personal information for optional uses if you have consented to such use by opt-in.

You may unsubscribe from these options at any time by contacting us at privacy@daltechequipment.com.au

Disclosure of Your Personal Information

Daltech will not disclose your personal information to any third parties except:

1. To our related companies.
2. To third parties appointed by Daltech, including our contractors, website and data hosting providers, technology service providers, advertising partners and other persons who perform services for us – in which case, Daltech uses reasonable steps to ensure such third parties keep your personal information confidential and do not use or disclose your personal information for any purpose other than the purpose of providing those services to us,
3. Where you have consented, to the extent required, in order to contact referees and other persons in order to confirm any information you have provided (e.g., your employment history and qualifications) and to perform background checks including with law enforcement agencies.
4. Where you have consented, to carefully selected third party partners so that they may inform you of offers, promotions, products, and services.
5. To our professional advisers, accountants, insurers, lawyers, and auditors on a confidential basis.
6. In the unlikely event that Daltech or its assets are or may be acquired by a third party, the information may be provided to that third party and its advisors.
7. In exceptional circumstances, Daltech may be required or permitted by law to disclose personal information, for example to law enforcement agencies or to prevent a serious threat to public safety.
8. Or otherwise with your consent.

Daltech requires third party organisations to which we disclose your personal information, to acknowledge the confidentiality of this information, respect any individual's right to privacy and comply with the Australian Privacy Principles and this Policy. Daltech also requires that these organisations use this information only for the purposes for which Daltech collected the information (or a secondary related purpose) and otherwise follow our reasonable directions with respect to this information.

Disclosure of Your Personal Information Overseas

Daltech may disclose your personal information to third parties located outside of Australia if it is reasonably necessary for Daltech's business. Daltech may only disclose your personal information to third parties in a foreign country if such disclosure is permitted by the Australian Privacy Principles. This includes:

1. If we are authorised to do so by law.
2. When we use, or disclose your personal information for any permitted purpose set out in this policy; or
3. If you have consented to us doing so.

Daltech will, if and to the extent required by the Privacy Act, take reasonable steps to ensure that any overseas recipient complies with the Australian Privacy Principles in relation to your personal information, unless we have a reasonable belief that the overseas recipient is subject to a law or binding scheme which is at least substantially similar to the Australian Privacy Principles and that you have mechanisms to take action to enforce any misuse of your personal information in that location. By providing Daltech with personal information, you consent to Daltech disclosing personal information to an overseas recipient.

Holding and Storing Your Personal Information

Daltech places great importance on the security of all information of our clients, contractors, and employment applicants. Daltech has security measures in place to attempt to protect against the misuse, interference, loss and unauthorised access, modification, or disclosure of personal information under our control.

Once Daltech receives your personal information, it makes every effort to ensure its security on Daltech's systems. Information stored within our computer systems can only be accessed by those entrusted with authority and computer network password sanctions.

Protecting Your Personal Information

Daltech understands that your information is personal, and we respect your privacy. In consideration of this, Daltech will take all reasonable steps to prevent your personal information from being misused, lost, or otherwise accessed by unauthorised people.

No data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Whilst we strive to protect users' personal information, Daltech cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information transmitted to it or from its online products or services, and users do so at their own risk. You are responsible for keeping your passwords and/or account information secret.

Where Daltech no longer requires your personal information Daltech will destroy or permanently de-identify your personal information so that you can no longer be identified.

Accessing and Correcting Personal Information

You can request access to or apply to correct or update your personal information held by Daltech by emailing privacy@daltechequipment.com.au Daltech will comply with the Privacy Act when dealing with your request.

There are certain exemptions which may apply to the provision of that information. Where permitted by the Privacy Act, we may also charge you a reasonable fee in order to provide you access to your personal information.

If you have any questions or concerns about Daltech's collection, use or disclosure of personal information, or if you wish to make a complaint about a breach of the Privacy Act by Daltech, please email Daltech at privacy@daltechequipment.com.au

If you are not satisfied with the way we have handled your claim, or are not satisfied with the outcome, you may wish to speak to the Office of the Australian Privacy Commissioner. They can be contacted via email at enquiries@oaic.gov.au
